

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

CHAPTER 22 – THE END WITH EVERYTHING NEW

GOD'S CONCLUSION TO REVELATION – REVELATION 22:6-21

Today is our final message of Revelation. In these last 16 verses God leaves the chronological narrative behind and brings The Revelation of Jesus Christ to a close. This ending comes in the form of an _____. An epilogue directly addresses the reader (or spectator); it includes the recap of principle matters and offers concluding instructions designed to provoke the individual to a _____ in thought and behavior.

This incredible book was written to show the servants of God things which must shortly be done. With each fleeting day we close the gap between the events of our lives and The Revelation of Jesus Christ. God being the ultimate author, eloquently details his _____ inspired words to mankind in the form of admonitions, invitations, a promise, and a prayer in order to prompt us to trust him more.

1. Admonitions – Revelation 22:6-16, 18-19

- _____ the book – verses 6-7
- _____ God – verses 8-9
- _____ the book – verse 10
- _____ God – verses 11-16
- Do _____ mess with the book – verses 18-19
Do not _____ to the words of the book; do not _____ from the words of the book or you will reap what you sow...

Three times God admonishes us with this command:

- 1) Once in the beginning of the Bible – Deut. 4:2
- 2) Once in the middle of the Bible – Pr. 30:6
- 3) Once at the end of the Bible – Rev. 22:18-19

2. Invitations – Revelation 22:17

- From:
 - The _____ of God
 - The church age _____ of God
 - Everyone else who hears and receives } Come

- To:

Anyone that thirsts— _____

Whosoever will— _____

- The cost

3. The last _____ in the Bible – Revelation 22:20a

- Surely I come quickly.

4. The last _____ in the Bible – Revelation 22:20b, 21

Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
